The Isle of Purbeck is not only a wonderful area of outstanding natural beauty, it is also full of creative people, many of whom helped establish Purbeck Art Weeks (PAW) in 2001. The PAW Festival celebrates art in all its various forms with a fortnight of open studios, concerts, talks, dance, films, poetry and other more informal events. While our visual artists proudly represent the diversity of talent in Purbeck, most of our performers come from much further afield and many are internationally renowned. We hope you will find plenty to tempt you in our Festival programme each year. However, to maintain the calibre of performances at affordable prices, we rely on your invaluable financial support. With your help we can continue to celebrate local and international talent through:

- Inviting high quality and renowned performers from outside Purbeck.
- Arranging workshops and events for young people.
- Awarding bursaries to artists of any discipline, visual or performing.
- Organising exciting and leading-edge events embracing a wide range of art forms.

We invite you to donate at least £50 per year for family membership (two or more people) or at least £30 per year for individual membership as a Friend of PAW. As we are a charity, both you and we can claim tax relief on this donation and your generosity can benefit us even more. In return we offer you:

- A preview of our plans in advance of each PAW Festival and an ability to contribute ideas and together shape the future of our exciting Festival.
- Advance information and priority booking for all PAW Festival events.
- Advance notice of events outside our main PAW Festival fortnight, eg the winter series of chamber music concerts with violinist Miranda Fulleylove and friends.
- Invitations to special events that may only be open to Friends.
- An invitation to the Private View that opens the Festival each year.
- Acknowledgement of your support as a named Friend in PAW publications and on our website, unless you prefer to remain anonymous.
- The knowledge that your donation will have helped support events and involve young people in ways that otherwise would not have been possible.
