Events Programme

MAY 23 – JUNE 7 2020

Welcome to Purbeck Art Weeks 2020!

This year's Festival theme 'Changing Seasons' brings something for all seasons and moods. Come and explore our rich array of Open Studios and art, along with inspiring music played by superb musicians and fascinating talks.

Where to start? Our collective exhibition in Rollington Barn, including the work of our Purbeck Young Artists, is a good place. Here you can plan your art trail whilst enjoying delicious refreshments in the café. The Festival evening events kick off with a semi-staged concert of uplifting Bach cantatas, I Fagiolini are back by popular demand, and the 250th anniversary of Beethoven's birth is being celebrated with some of his great cello sonatas. There are illustrated talks, our celebration of young musical talent and much more.

There are plenty of activities to keep the family busy! Our postcard competition is back, so do pick up your postcards and get them signed at the studios and events you visit – you could win! Have a go at sketching – whatever your age, join in the PAW Raffle, and remember to look at the shop window displays in Wareham, Corfe and Swanage and vote for your favourite.

Details can be found in this Brochure and our Events Programme. Tickets for concerts and other events can be booked online at www.purbeckartweeksfestival.co.uk – they are also available at Swanage and Wareham Tourist Information Centres.

Come and enjoy it all with us!

Charlotte Heath, Chair, Purbeck Art Weeks Festival

Foreword

FROM THE FESTIVAL PRESIDENT

Some 26 years ago I was commissioned to do a sculpture of the young Mozart, which now stands near the house in Ebury Street, London, where the Mozart family stayed in 1764. It was here that the nine year old prodigy composed his first symphony and possibly his second. Mozart's prodigious talents were nurtured by his entire musical family. He grew up in a household full of music, and music became second nature to him. Many other great artists, also nurtured by their families, showed similar talents at an early age: Pablo Picasso, Angelica Kauffman in the world of painting, Chopin, Liszt, and Daniel Barenboim from the world of music; I scratch the surface of this extraordinary pool. So what has this to do with Purbeck Art Weeks Festival? Well PAW is, in many ways, the talented family that encourages, nurtures and helps bring on young talent; it allows children and young people to place their work alongside gifted amateurs and emerging and professional artists – giving everyone the experience of exhibiting or showing their work to a friendly and enthusiastic public.

The fact that PAW has now been going for some 20 years is testament to its success. Started by a small group of visual artists it has grown and evolved into what it is today, a fully rounded Festival involving all the arts. It will continue to evolve, and that evolution will ensure its success. It will, however, always be a family within which painters, sculptors, ceramicists, dancers, musicians and artists of all persuasions will find support, advice, encouragement, inspiration, excitement and enormous satisfaction.

I am delighted and proud to be involved with this wonderful Festival. My thanks and admiration to all those volunteers who, through their hard work, make PAW such a success.

Rollington Barn hosts PAW's collective exhibition showcasing the fantastic range of creative talent on show across Purbeck; sculpture, paintings and jewellery rub shoulders with ceramics, prints, photography and greetings cards. Artwork can be purchased and taken away on the day. We accept cash, cheques and most credit and debit cards.

As a hub for the PAW festival, Rollington Barn provides a taste of what can be discovered by visiting our Open Studios, many of which provide a unique opportunity to meet our artists. You will find a warm welcome in those often less known and hidden corners of Purbeck.

Rollington Barn is an excellent place to start planning your art trail. On the barn door a large PAW map will help you find your way around the Open Studios and events, with information on the full range of concerts, talks and films taking place in the evenings. PAW's

YOUNG ARTISTS PROGRAMME

Images from last year's 'Flights of Fancy' PYA exhibition at Rollington Barn

Encouraging and celebrating art created locally by young people is at the very heart of PAW. Every year we involve around 500 Purbeck Young Artists (PYA) in schools across the area in creative activities. Students are encouraged to develop art works on the festival theme, which this year is 'Changing Seasons'. The workshops have been coordinated by Sebastian McEwen and are implemented by a talented team of artists, each of whom have experience of working with young people. The range of workshops span metalwork, photography, rust printing, sculpture, dance and puppetry. You can see the inspiring results at Rollington Barn.

We would like to express our gratitude to The Friends of the Festival and to all those acknowledged later in this brochure for supporting our work with young people.

PAW AND RSPB ARNE

PAW is delighted and proud to have developed a close collaboration with the RSPB reserve at Arne over the last four years. The exhibition space in the new café at Arne is exclusively showing the work of PAW artists as part of a year-round rolling two monthly programme of one-person shows. The work on display focuses on local landscape and wildlife subjects. Do drop by when you are visiting Arne during the year and see our exhibitions.

PAW SKETCHING PROGRAMME

During the Festival PAW artists are invited to come along and sketch during rehearsals of selected PAW concerts – keep an eye open for the results, which will be displayed in the relevant venue foyer. If you're interested in doing some sketching yourself, we have an annual series of sketching events at prearranged outdoor venues. If you are interested in taking part, a full list of the dates and venues is available at www.purbeckartweeksfestival.co.uk

THE EVENTS

In 2020 we again offer a wide range of events. The internationally renowned violinist Rachel Podger with countertenor Mark Chambers and the group Sestina open our Festival and take us on a journey with members of the Bach family. No fewer than eight trombones of different sizes will lift the roof of Wareham church while I Fagiolini return to help us celebrate the changing seasons with music from across the ages. We celebrate the 250th anniversary of Beethoven's birth with works for cello and piano, while the group Fieri Consort returns, this time with the Chelys Consort of Viols, to perform Elizabethan music.

Our illustrated talks by local experts cover the history of Purbeck in maps and how objects get transformed as works of art by nature as well as people. Poetry at the Globe in Swanage, a celebration of music making by some of our rising young musicians and a performance of a chamber cantata by Boccherini complete the range of events. We hope you will join us at as many events as you can.

More details on each event are in our Events Programme (£2) from selected outlets, including the Swanage and Wareham Tourist Offices.

A REAWAKENING: BACH CANTATAS AND VIOLIN MASTERPIECES

Saturday 23rd May | 7.30pm

EVENT VENUE C

St James' Church, Kingston BH20 5LL

Tickets: £22 adults, £2 students

The counter tenor Mark Chambers returns, this year with his group Sestina and the internationally renowned baroque violinist Rachel Podger, to perform a sequence of music by the Bach family which will transport us from darkness to light. We will move from JS Bach's Cantata for Easter to a JC Bach wedding cantata celebrating the Song of Songs.

The sequence will be staged around a festive table and include the great Sarabande and Chaconne from Bach's Partita for solo violin. Yehudi Menuhin called the Chaconne "the greatest structure for solo violin that exists". In this performance you will also hear the chorales that researcher Helga Thoene found hidden in the violin score of the Chaconne. The evening can perhaps be summed up in some words from the Cantata for Easter: "It was a wondrous battle, / when death and life wrestled. / Life won the victory, / it has swallowed up death".

Sestina is led by counter-tenor Mark Chambers and has developed into an ensemble with an ever-growing reputation for excellence, both in its mentorship of young singers and in the quality of its performances, specialising in early music.

Rachel Podger, "the unsurpassed British glory of the baroque violin" (The Times), has established herself as a leading interpreter of the Baroque and Classical music periods. We are delighted to welcome one of the world's greatest Bach interpreters to our Purbeck Festival.

TRANSFORMATIONS: CASTING IN GEOLOGY AND ART TALK BY JULIET HAYSOM

Sunday 24th May | 7.30pm

EVENT VENUE D

Harman's Cross Village Hall, BH19 3EB

Tickets: £10 adults, £2 students

This illustrated talk by Juliet Haysom will discuss the physical transformations of certain materials over time, and the reciprocal relationship between moulds and casts. Taking cues from geology (such as the trace and body fossils found in Purbeck's limestone beds, Kimmeridge shales and the chalk of North Hill) as well as from moments in the histories of art and architecture, Juliet will explore the poetic qualities and creative potential of translating negative space into positive form.

Juliet Haysom is an artist and designer. She trained in Fine Art at The Ruskin School, University of Oxford and The Royal College of Art, London, and later completed RIBA Part-1 at the Architectural Association. She is currently developing an artist's commission involving casting two architectural follies within a new park in Bristol and has designed cast seating and play elements for a new public garden in Amesbury. She teaches at the Architectural Association, London and at University of the Arts, London.

AU NATUREL: I FAGIOLINI CELEBRATE THE CHANGING SEASONS

Saturday 30th May | 6.30pm,

Prory Church of Lady St Mary,
Wareham, BH20 4ND

Tickets: £22 adults, £2 students

EVENT VENUE A

Buffet Supper: a pre-concert buffet supper provided by The Salt Pig is available at the nearby Community Café from 5.45pm: a vegetarian quiche, two salads, a pudding and drink can be booked on-line only for £12. Concert seats for buffet purchasers will be reserved.

I Fagiolini return by popular demand to help us celebrate the seasons with music by Monteverdi, Schütz, Brahms, Poulenc, Britten and many other composers from across the ages. The sequence has been inspired by the paintings of Peter Bruegel the Younger and these images (above) are expanded in the Events Programme. The paintings are both a hymn to the majesty of nature and a prayer for its generosity. We can feel the temperatures, smell the air and odours, hear sounds of labour and the ringing voices of men, children, animals and birds. The musical sequence seeks to reflect these sensations. All the words will be provided.

I Fagiolini are grounded in the classics of renaissance and twentieth century vocal repertoire and are renowned for their innovative and often staged productions of this music. They have performed Monteverdi's Orfeo and celebrated the world of Leonardo da Vinci at recent PAW Festivals to wide acclaim.

Robert Hollingworth founded I Fagiolini in 1986 and is well known for creating ground-breaking projects which present music to audiences in innovative ways. He also directs various international ensembles.

BOCCHERINI STABAT MATER

Sunday 31st May | 7.30pm

EVENT VENUE H

Holy Spirit & St Edward's Catholic church,
1, Victoria Avenue, Swanage BH19 1AH
Tickets: £18 adults, £2 students

Alison Ponsford-Hill (soprano), Luigi De Fillippi and Miranda Fulleylove (violins), Sascha Bota (viola), Sebastian Comberti and Timothy Merton (cellos) perform this moving and lyrical composition. The set of movements exceed the perhaps better known Stabat Mater by Pergolesi in the variety of moods it conveys.

It will be preceded by Boccherini's Opus 11 string quintet, which is played as background music while "The Lady Killers" plot their heist in the Ealing comedy!

Alison Ponsford-Hill (soprano) began singing as a chorister in Salisbury Cathedral. After graduating from Cambridge, she has performed, recorded and toured with groups such as the Monteverdi Choir, Tenebrae, The Sixteen and Stile Antico.

Violinist Miranda Fulleylove and her string quintet friends have performed and recorded all over the world with many of London's leading chamber ensembles and orchestras.

The church contains the wonderful paintings by artist Fra Newberry who retired to Corfe from the Glasgow School of Art.

MAPPING THE MANORS: MARY SPARKS

Thursday 4th June | 7.30pm,
Harman's Cross Village Hall,
BH19 3EB
Tickets: £10 adults, £2 students

EVENT VENUE

How has the landscape of eastern Purbeck changed over time?

Who were the 'Lords of the manors' and what did they control?

Mary Sparks will share her 'research in progress', using maps and documents from different periods to explore land holding patterns in the Rowbarrow Hundred from Edward the Confessor's reign to the present day. She will interrogate ideas about 'the Manor', assessing how these ideas relate to what actually existed on the ground. Methods and the process of the research will be explained, as well as findings so far: coloured parish tithe maps of Swanage, Studland, Langton Matravers, Worth Matravers and Corfe from c.1840 showing land ownership will be presented, and Affington Manor will feature as a focussed example of the wider picture.

Dr Mary Sparks is a local historian who has researched aspects of village life in Worth Matravers in the 19th and 20th Centuries, including the 'Social Mobility of the Country Cottage'. Following time in Bosnia, in 2014 her book on the urban history of Sarajevo (1878-1918) was published by Bloomsbury. She also used maps in her research on Sarajevo; in that context to explore themes of segregation and social integration in the city.

We will display copies of some old maps at the talk.

BEETHOVEN CELLO SONATAS

Friday 5th June | 7.30pm,

St George's Church,

Langton Matravers BH19 3HZ

Tickets: £18 adults, £2 students

EVENT VENUE E

The PCC of St George's Church has made the church premises and facilities available for this concert free of charge. We much appreciate their support.

Robin Michael (cello) and Daniel Tong (piano) help us celebrate the 250th anniversary of Beethoven's birth by performing his E flat variations on a theme from Mozart's Magic Flute and three of his great cello sonatas. There will be introductions to the works by the inspiring broadcaster and music critic Richard Wigmore.

With its unforgettable opening on cello alone, the Sonata in A major, Op. 69, of 1807/8 is a favourite with players and audiences alike. In comparison, and composed in the summer of 1815, Beethoven's final two cello sonatas stand on the cusp of his late so-called 'third period' – which includes his monumental 9th Symphony but also more introverted and contemplative works. The last sonata ends with a full-blown fugue – the first in a line of knotty fugal movements that are such a feature of Beethoven's late works, right through to the famous Grosse Fuge.

Robin Michael is principal cellist in Orchestre Révolutionnaire et Romantique, a guest principal cellist with many international orchestras and a regular performer in our winter series of Chamber Music in Purbeck Houses.

Daniel Tong spends his musical life performing as a soloist and chamber musician, as well as directing two chamber music festivals, teaching and occasionally writing. He has appeared at many of the foremost British venues and festivals.

FROM LOVE TO DESPAIR: FIERI CONSORT AND CHELYS CONSORT OF VIOLS

Saturday 6th June | 6.30pm

Emmanuel Baptist Church,

160 Victoria Ave, Swanage BH19 1AZ

Tickets: £18 adults, £2 students

EVENT VENUE F

The Fieri Consort and Chelys Consort of Viols perform a programme based around Michael East's madrigals for voices and viols, interspersed with fantasies for five viols which tell a story of love, despair and triumph. Music by other composers such as Orlando Gibbons, Thomas Tallis and William Byrd also feature.

The viol consort flourished in England in the 16th and early 17th centuries and the fantasia was one of the main forms of composition. Michael East (1580-1648) was an English composer and organist, working at Ely and, later, Lichfield cathedrals. He published seven books of compositions, making him one of the most published composers of his time, and all of them contain music for viols and voices. The verse anthems in tonight's programme have been chosen, like the other vocal items, to complement the subject of the preceding fantasia. The Silver Swan and What is our Life, both by Gibbons, along with Byrd's Ye Sacred Muses will be known to many singers.

Founded in 2012, including by ex-Swanage soprano, Hannah Ely, Fieri Consort is one of the UK's most exciting vocal groups, offering a unique blend of technical precision and theatrical innovation.

The members of Chelys Consort of Viols are among the UK's leading exponents of the viol, particularly as a consort instrument.
